

COURSE &

ACCOMMODATION FEES:

3 night stay on a full board basis £309 (inc VAT) per person. Add on a fourth night for a total of £399 (inc VAT). The fourth night is on a bed and breakfast basis only.

The fee includes the course and accommodation on a full board basis. The price is based on two people sharing a standard room. A £75 one-off supplement will be applied for single room occupancy.

HOW TO BOOK:

Please contact Eshott Hall by email info@eshotthall.co.uk or telephone 01670 787454 to book your place.

If you have any dietary or mobility requirements please let us know at the time of booking.

ESHOTT HALL

Eshott Hall

Morpeth, Northumberland,
NE65 9EN

www.doxfordhall.com

01670 787454

SUNDAY 24TH MARCH

16.00	Welcome and Afternoon Tea
17.30	Introduction to the course
19.45	Dinner

MONDAY 25TH MARCH

08.30	Breakfast
10.00-12.00	Martin Luther and the Heroic Beginnings of the Reformation
12.45	Lunch
13.30	Free time to explore the local area
16.30	Cream Tea
17.00-18.30	Divine Right of Kings? The Reformation in England and Wales
20.00	Dinner

TUESDAY 26TH MARCH

08.30	Breakfast
10.00-12.00	Order or Freedom? The Reformation in Scotland
12.45	Lunch
13.30	Free time to explore the local area
16.30	Cream Tea
17.00-18.30	A Recipe for Disaster? The Reformation in Ireland
19.45	Dinner

WEDNESDAY 27TH MARCH

08.30	Breakfast
09.30-11.00	What Have We Learned? Catholics and Protestants Today
12.15	Lunch and departure

COURSE DETAILS

Understanding The Protestant Reformation

SUN 24TH -
WEDS 27TH MARCH 2019

Michael Bourke Former Bishop of Wolverhampton (1993-2006)

Why does the Protestant Reformation matter today?

This three-day seminar, led by Michael Bourke, former Bishop of Wolverhampton, aims to deliver a deeper understanding of how the events of the 16th and 17th centuries changed the course of history and shaped early modern Christian thought. Through discussion of the traditions of Catholicism, Protestantism, and

'radical' Protestantism and the personalities and events of the period, you will understand why the Reformation period has such significance on the modern world, 500 years on.

ESHOTT HALL

About

ESHOTT HALL

From the moment you enter the sweeping, tree-lined driveway to Eshott Hall you know you've happened upon something special. A perfectly proportioned Georgian jewel, clad in wisteria and set within its own manicured gardens, the quintessential and oh-so-photogenic English country house tucked away in the beautiful Northumbrian countryside. With seventeen elegantly appointed bedrooms, a double rosette award-winning restaurant and a passion for providing the highest standards of service and comfort, Eshott Hall ticks all the boxes for an indulgent stay.

Conveniently close to the A1, yet a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of modern life, Eshott Hall is the perfect base to explore the sights of Northumberland. Winner of the Best UK Holiday Destination in the 2018 British Travel Awards, the county's impressive scenery and heritage is well worth exploring.

Discover the majestic Northumberland Coastal Path, unrivalled for its rugged beauty, the picture-perfect backdrop of mighty fortresses dotted along the shoreline and its nature-spotting opportunities. Get up close to puffins and grey seals on the Farne Islands or discover the gruesome history behind many of the area's iconic castles. Immerse yourself in a horticultural heaven at the many phenomenal gardens at Alnwick, Howick, Belsay Hall and Capability Brown's birthplace, Kirkharle.

