ESHOTT HALL

MURDER ON THE DANCE FLOOR

Get your glitz and glamour on and join the team behind the glittering dance show that was once much loved by the nation. However, over the last two series viewing figures have dropped dramatically and the channel's commissioners are threatening to pull the plug.

The team have escaped to the beautiful Northumbrian countryside desperate to find the solution to save their show, careers and for some, most importantly, secret relationships.

As the temperature rises in the creative pressure pot, fuelled by gossip, backstabbing and personal vendettas, it quickly seems like this showbiz world is a dangerous place for anyone deemed to have the ex-factor to be...

Join fellow guests of Eshott Hall for an entertaining, immersive murder mystery experience, hosted by the award-winning entertainment group Murders We Wrote. You are a detective and as you enter the beautiful Eshott Hall, watch and listen very carefully to everything around you.

Discover clues and avoid the red herrings to answer three important questions: who committed the murder, how was the murder committed and why was the murder committed?

Can you solve the crime before a murderer waltzes off into the sunset?
